Pride Elevates 2027

Auckland Pride
Festival 2027

Overview

Following its success in the 2025 Auckland Pride Festival, Pride Elevates returns to Q Loft for the Auckland Pride Festival in 2027.

Pride Elevates seeks to illuminate how complexities and nuances of Takatāpui and Rainbow identities shape artistic expression and contribute to our shared narratives. We welcome all forms of creative expression and are excited to provide a platform for artists to reflect on the multifaceted nature of identity, connection, and resilience.

It is important to note that this programme requires artists who have the necessary experience and skills to develop, refine, and stage a work within the context of a festival and to do so within a four-month timeframe. We're looking for artists who are ready to engage deeply with their craft, with ready-to-present works, and who bring a high level of professionalism and dedication to the creative process and the Auckland Pride Festival.

Pride Elevates is dedicated to providing artists with extensive support to ensure the success and longevity of their work. While Auckland Pride will financially contribute, we also offer a wealth of resources designed to enhance both the creative process and the visibility of your project, as well as connection to a whānau and lineage of queer arts practice in Tāmaki Makaurau.

Pride Elevates allows a journey that will challenge you to delve into a deeper understanding of how your practice resonates within and beyond our communities. If you have the experience and the passion to meet this challenge, we want to hear from you.

What you'll get as an Auckland Pride Elevates Artist

- Q Theatre Loft full hire for a 5 night season
- A dedicated Production Manager and Venue Technician who will oversee your entire season
- Artistic development opportunities such as wānanga, workshops, and regular check-ins. We expect full engagement in this collaborative process. This is an opportunity to refine your practice within a supportive environment that fosters creative growth, mutual respect, and the sharing of ideas and experiences.
- A publicity and marketing package
- $10,000 towards artist fees, production and material cost support

Who Can Apply

Pride Elevates is designed to uplift and amplify the voices of our diverse creatives. This programme aims to create a vibrant rich tapestry of performances that truly inspire, speak to and resonate with our audiences. We invite applications from a wide range of individuals and groups who are passionate about their art and looking to make a meaningful impact through creativity. We specifically seek applicants who have prior experience in staging their chosen show or a show to a similar scale. Below are the categories of applicants eligible to apply:

1. Collectives
2. Individuals
3. Community Groups
4. Established Performance Groups

Your application will be considered ineligible if:

1. Unstaged Performances: Individuals or Groups who have not previously staged performances or creative projects of a similar scope.
2. Incomplete Applications: Individuals or groups that submit applications that do not meet the required criteria or complete the application form.
3. Misaligned: Individuals will be deemed ineligible for the programme if their principles, beliefs, and actions do not align with Auckland Pride's vision, mission and values.

Selection Criteria

The Pride Elevates Programme offers a unique opportunity for artists to explore and express themes and ideas around connection and reciprocity. We seek to support those who can deliver compelling, intimate performances within this framework.

1. Cast and Crew Composition:

- Size and Scope: We are exclusively seeking performances featuring no more than four cast members, in alignment with the artist fees and intimate setting of the Theatre. Productions must be tightly focused, whether they are solo performances or two-handers. Larger ensembles, more than 4 cast members, or complex stage productions will not be considered due to venue size, budget constraints, and capacity within 4 months of delivery.
- Representation: It is essential that a majority of the cast and crew, particularly those in leading or audience-facing roles, identify as part of Kāhui Takatāpui and Rainbow Communities. We celebrate and expect diversity in representation, drawing from a wide range of identities, experiences, and backgrounds that reflect the richness of our community.

2. Dedicated Producer:

- Role: Each production must have a dedicated Producer who will be responsible for all logistical elements, including budget management, coordination with Auckland Pride's Executive Producer, and communication with Theatre staff. The Producer must be a seasoned professional with a deep understanding of the unique needs and dynamics of queer artistic practices.
- Experience: We require a Producer with a proven track record in arts production or a closely related field. Their role is crucial in ensuring that the artistic vision is realised to its fullest potential, and they must share our commitment to supporting and nurturing queer talent within the performing arts.

3. Dedicated Stage Manager:

- Role: Each production must have a dedicated Stage Manager who plays the crucial role in its successful execution by overseeing all aspects of stage operations and ensuring a seamless flow of events during the performance. The stage manager is responsible for maintaining a safe and organised environment, ensuring that all technical elements, such as cues, props, and set changes are executed flawlessly. The Stage Manager serves as a central point of contact during live performances, making any quick decisions to address any challenges that may arise.
- Experience: The ideal Stage Manager will have a proven track record of experience, showcasing a strong understanding of stagecraft or in a closely related field. This multifaceted role is essential for creating a smooth and enjoyable experience for both the cast and audience.

4. Learnings and Reflection:

- Openness to Feedback: We value artists who are committed to ongoing learning and reflection. Your cast and crew must be open to constructive feedback throughout the programme, participating actively in discussions and embracing opportunities for growth and adaptation.
- Active Participation: We seek professionals who are not only talented but also dedicated to their craft. An active, engaged approach to the learning process is essential, as we work together to push the boundaries of what queer art can achieve.

5. Additional Funding:

- Selection: We seek collectives, individuals, community groups or established performance groups who have sourced other forms of funding. While securing additional funding sources is encouraged and helps ensure Auckland Pride's confidence in the affordability of presenting your work, it is not a requirement for consideration.

Information Sessions

As a part of our Artist Experience we would like to offer an Information Sessions designed to guide you or your collective through this application process. While we will not be brainstorming or developing ideas for your projects, these sessions will provide essential insights into the Pride kaupapa and theme that underpin Pride Elevates.

PRIDE ELEVATES 2027 INFORMATION PACK

Together, we'll explore the key components of the application process, clarify any questions you might have and ensure you have a solid understanding of what we're looking for. This is an opportunity to gain valuable guidance on the application criteria and to connect with others within the creative community.

Both these sessions will be covering the same content so you do not need to attend both but please do if you have further questions. Looking forward to connecting with you then.

Information Session 1 Pride Elevates:

Friday 09th October

Previous Pride Elevates Shows

Pride Elevates 2025

What Happened to Mary-Anne? - musical theatre work by Brady Peeti. The story of trans woman Mary-Anne and her insatiable adoration for the power of rock. It is electric! It is dramatic! It is loud and sometimes obnoxious! It is dirty and vulgar and everything you want at a rock and roll concert AND MORE!!! Featuring the musical stylings from rock and roll legends throughout history such as Stevie Nicks and Kiss! Audiences will be welcomed to come and fulfil their rock star fantasy as they get caught in Mary-Anne's web.

Body Story - Solo Dance work by Xin Ji. The story of his body unravels through moments where the emotional and physical collide. Uncertainty, recklessness and euphoria slide into an intimate personal narrative — offering ways to consider our bodies as vehicles for resistance and alchemy.

Mā - a devised theatre and performance poetry work by Jonjon Tolovae. The show delves into themes of chosen family, motherhood, and identity. This triple handler is set against the backdrop of diasporic Samoan life, the performance reflects on the intersectionality of queer identity and the nurturing essence of motherhood. "Mā" is both a tribute to the artist's own mother and a powerful expression of chosen family bonds within the queer community, embracing Aiga filifiliga (Chosen Family) as central to its narrative.

Pride Elevates 2024

The Bloom - Dance work by Jessie McCall made in collaboration with creative production studio RDYSTDY, and performers Sofia McIntyre, Raven Afoa-Purcell & Sasha Matsumoto.
